Justin Michael joins Travellers Choice in new GM Finance role

12 December 2016: Travellers Choice is pleased to announce an expansion of its senior management team with the appointment of Justin Michael to the newly-created position of General Manager Finance & Administration.

Michael brings more than 20 years' experience of the travel, aviation and financial services sectors to the new position. Previous roles include Chief Financial Officer for Skywest Airlines and State Manager for Flight Centre in Western Australia.

Michael also spent two years in Canada working for Flight Centre North America as Senior Financial Controller, Business Services, Product and Marketing.

Travellers Choice Managing Director Christian Hunter says the appointment further broadens the skill set within the company.

"Justin offers a valuable combination of financial and travel industry expertise," says Hunter. "His appointment also completes our senior management group, which now includes respected leaders in the fields of sales, marketing and finance.

"By expanding the senior leadership group we are ensuring Travellers Choice has the ideal platform to fully support our members and position the company for ongoing growth."
